KILOHANA ART LEAGUE WILL HAVE LITERARY COMPETITION

The literary circle of the Kilohana Art League, in making the following announcement, desires that the influence of the league shall become more widespread. The Art League's aim is to foster the fine arts, such as painting, literature, etc., and the committee hopes that the amateur writers of these islands will take an interest in the matter.

Announcement to all Island residents interested in literary work.

The literary circle of the Kilohana Art League invites both from league members and the general public, competitive contributions for the year 1901 in the following lines of literary work:

1. Original stories.
2. Poetry and verse.
3. Critical essays on the work, or a phase of work, of a selected author or historical character.
4. Critical or comparative studies of a class or group of authors, literary work, or school of thought.
5. Social, economic, educational or sociological study of any group, race, or problem connected with our island or national life.
6. Original dramas, or the dramatization of published stories or poems.

All contributions are to be mailed to Mrs. Selma S. Kinney, Young street.

DON'T WRITE HONOLULU, H. T.

Instead of the Initials Give the Name Hawaii in Full.

The United States Postoffice Department recognizes only the term "Hawaii" as being the official designation for the Hawaiian Islands. "Territory of Hawaii," "T. H.," or "Haw." have no place in the official abbreviations for the new territory.

When the Islands became a territory of the United States considerable speculation was had as to how letter writers abroad should address their friends here, and many believed that "T. H." would about hit the mark. Chief Clerk Kenake states that when ordering stationery from Washington, he made out the forms intending to use the letters "T. H." but the stationery came back with the word "Hawaii" printed thereon. Rubber stamps also came to his office with this word, and thus it has become recognized in the business and official circles on the mainland to write the word "Hawaii" in full on envelopes for the islands. The word Hawaii does not mean the island of Hawaii in this sense. Letters addressed to Hilo, Hawaii, or Mahalo, Hawaii, do not specifically designate the island of Hawaii, but come into the postoffice under the same terms as letters addressed to Honolulu, Hawaii. There were formerly two Waialeas, one on Hawaii and one on Kauai. The Waialea on the island of Hawaii, before November 30th, in Honolulu. All manuscripts should be signed by a nom de plume, and each should be accompanied by a sealed envelope, bearing the same nom de plume on the outside, and containing the real name of the author, with address. If it is desired that the manuscript be returned, postage should be enclosed.

A competent committee will be appointed by the literary circle of the league to study and compare the various contributions, and first, second, and third mention of best contributions in each class will be made by the committee in the public press as the submitted work justifies.

It is the further intention of the literary circle to make selections from the best contributions for presentation at their homes to be given at the league rooms during the present season, the selections to be presented either by the author personally, or by some one chosen for the particular selection to be rendered.

Respeaking a wider interest throughout the islands in these various lines of literary work, we are, on behalf of the literary circle of the Kilohana Art League,

SELMA S. KINNEY,

ELIZABETH VAN CLEVE HALL, Committee.

and of Hawaii has been changed to Kamuela, and the only Waialea now in existence, as far as the Postoffice is concerned, is that on Kauai.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I had a very severe cough and cold, and I feared I would get pneumonia, but after taking the second dose of this medicine I felt better, three bottles of it cured my cold and the pains in my chest disappeared entirely. I am most respectfully yours for health, Ralph S. Meyers, 64 Thirty-seventh street, Wheeling, W. Va. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents.
